

Ontario's System-wide Electricity Supply Mix*

Ontario's electricity supply comes from a variety of sources. Throughout 2013, Ontario's reliance on nuclear, water and wind energy increased, while gas generation output decreased. Ontario's electricity system will continue to evolve over 2014 and beyond with the introduction of solar energy to the grid, demand response and wind generation developing critical mass as well as the nuclear refurbishment program.

*Ontario Independent Electricity System Operator, January 8, 2014

Customer Service: 613-738-6400
Power Out? 613-738-0188

